1. The Authorizing Party has voluntarily registered for and entered the 2026 WeChat Mini Program Development Competition (the "Competition"), organized by the Authorized Party, and has submitted an entry to the Competition.
2. The Authorized Party serves as the organizer of the Competition and is responsible for the organization, operation, publicity, promotion, and execution of the Competition and related activities.

The Authorizing Party hereby irrevocably grants the following authorizations and confirms the following:

1. Right to Use Portrait, Name, and Entry-Related Materials

The Authorizing Party hereby agrees and authorizes the Authorized Party to use the Authorizing Party's portrait and likeness (including but not limited to photographs, videos, audio recordings, and other audiovisual materials), name (including but not limited to the legal name, nickname, competition ID, or other identifying information), and all entry-related materials (including but not limited to the title of the Competition Entry, entry description, screenshots, demonstration videos, and other related materials) for the purpose of organizing, operating, promoting, and publicizing the Competition and related activities.

Such use may include, without limitation, online and offline advertising, media coverage, on-site exhibitions, printed promotional materials, production and distribution of promotional videos, social media distribution, and other promotional and publicity activities.

2. Copyright and Intellectual-Property Ownership of the Competition Entry

The copyright and all other intellectual property rights in the Competition Entry shall remain vested in the Authorizing Party (the participant) in accordance with applicable law. Neither the Authorized Party nor any third party shall assert any ownership or proprietary interest in such rights.

Nothing contained in this Acknowledgment and Consent Form shall be construed as an assignment or transfer of the copyright or any other intellectual property rights in the Competition Entry to the Authorized Party or any third party.

3. License to Use the Competition Entry

Without prejudice to the copyright ownership set forth in Section 2, the Authorizing Party hereby grants the Authorized Party and its affiliates a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use the Competition Entry under the following terms:

(a) Scope of Use: The Competition Entry may be used for the purposes of the Competition, related events, subsequent publicity and promotional activities, and future retrospective reviews or exhibitions relating to the Competition. Such use may include, without limitation, exhibition, public display, public performance, broadcasting, communication through information networks, adaptation, compilation, and any other lawful forms of use.

(b) Term: Perpetual.

(c) License Fee: Royalty-free. The Authorized Party shall not be required to pay any royalties, license fees, or other compensation to the Authorizing Party.

(d) Sublicensing: The Authorized Party may sublicense the foregoing rights to its affiliates or to third-party partners as reasonably necessary for the publicity and promotion of the Competition.

4. Term and Territory of Authorization

(a) The authorization granted under Section 1 regarding the use of the Authorizing Party's portrait, likeness, name, and entry-related materials shall commence on the date this Letter of Authorization is signed and shall be perpetual.

(b) The license granted under Section 3 regarding the use of the Competition Entry shall be perpetual.

(c) Territory of Authorization: Worldwide.

5. Representations and Warranties

The Authorizing Party represents and warrants that:

(a) the Authorizing Party is the lawful owner of the copyright and all necessary intellectual property rights and other proprietary rights in the Competition Entry.

(b) the Competition Entry does not infringe upon any lawful rights or interests of any third party, including but not limited to copyrights, portrait rights, rights of reputation, privacy rights, or other intellectual property or personality rights.

Should any dispute, claim, demand, or lawsuit arise out of the ownership or content of the Competition Entry, the Authorizing Party shall bear all corresponding legal liabilities. The Authorizing Party shall indemnify, defend, and hold the Authorized Party harmless from and against all losses, damages, liabilities, reasonable attorneys' fees, and other relevant costs incurred therefrom.

6. Miscellaneous

(a) This Letter of Authorization shall become effective upon the signature of the Authorizing Party and shall constitute the Authorizing Party's acknowledgment and acceptance of all the terms and conditions set forth herein.

(b) This Letter of Authorization is executed in two counterparts, with one copy retained by each of the Authorizing Party and the Authorized Party. Both originals shall have equal legal effect.
